

SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT.

THE RUGBY GAZETTE AND EAST TENNESSEE NEWS.

Formerly known as the Plateau Gazette has been recently purchased by the Rugby Publishing Company, and will be issued independently of any political party. It is the only paper specially devoted to the development of the important district known as the Cumberland Plateau.

ITS OBJECTS AND AIMS.

To draw the attention of the outside world to the natural advantages of Rugby and its surrounding country. To give such current news of the day as shall be of interest to its readers, especially concise accounts of events happening in the State of Tennessee. To take such part in the affairs of the State and especially of the Counties of the Cumberland Plateau, as will teach its readers to think and vote for such men and measures as will insure an honest and faithful administration of the State and County affairs irrespective of party politics, and to perform such functions as properly fall within the province of a local paper.

TO THE ADVERTISER.

Judicious advertising has created many a new business and enlarged many an old one; has revived many a small business, and saved many a failing one; it preserves the large concern and secures success in any undertaking.

ADVERTISING RATES.

Special Advertising Rates quoted upon application. Address the Editor.

AGENTS WANTED.

A live Correspondent and Agent wanted in every town in the District comprising Morgan, Scott, Fentress, Anderson and Campbell Counties, who will keep us well posted in current news.

SAMPLE COPIES.

Our readers will greatly oblige us by forwarding names and addresses of friends to whom Sample Copies may be sent.

JOB PRINTING.

All work entrusted to our care will be neatly executed with promptness and despatch. Estimates furnished upon application.